129. Thou hast no concern in the matter: He may turn to them in mercy or punish them, for they are wrongdoers.

130. And to Allāh belongs whatever is in the heavens and whatever is in the earth. He forgives whomsoever He pleases and punishes whomsoever He pleases, and Allāh is Most Forgiving, Merciful.

*131. O ye who believe! devour not interest involving diverse additions; and fear Allāh that you may prosper.

- 132. And fear the Fire prepared for the disbelievers.
- 133. And obey Allāh and the Messenger that you be shown mercy.
- *134. And vie with one another in asking for forgiveness from your Lord, and for a Paradise whose price is the heavens and the earth, prepared for the God-fearing—
  - 135. Those who spend in prosperity and adversity, and those who suppress anger and pardon men; and Allāh loves those who do good;
  - 136. And those who, when they commit a foul deed or wrong

<sup>*147.</sup> Note: The word ribbīyyūn (ويَغْنِي) has been merely translated as 'companies (of their followers)' without the essential connotation of godliness which is implied in the word (ويَغُون). We suggest the following alternative translation: "And many a Prophet there has been beside whom fought a large number of godly people."
